

The U.S. Latina/o Studies Program and the Department of American Studies presents:
Dr. Suzanne Oboler

Editor of Latino Studies Journal and Professor,
CUNY/John Jay College

The U.S. Latina/o Studies
Inaugural Address:
“Latinas/os in the 21st
Century:
Immigration,
Participation and Rights”

Thursday, November 5, 2009

5:00-6:30 p.m.

The Maryland Room, Marie Mount Hall

Reception to follow talk.

Campus community and general public are invited.

Professor Suzanne Oboler is Professor of Latin American and Latina/o Studies at John Jay College of the City University of New York. She is Founding Editor of the academic journal, Latino Studies. Dr. Oboler is author of Ethnic Labels, Latino Lives and editor of Latinos and Citizenship: The Dilemma of Belonging (2006), and the recently released Behind Bars: Latino/as and Prison in the United States (2009). Professor Oboler lectures widely across the country and abroad, on issues related to Latino/as and to the field of Latino Studies in the United States.

For more information about the U.S. Latina/o Studies minor, courses, and events contact:
Robb Hernandez, USLT G.A.
robbher3@umd.edu
0126 Holzapfel Hall or 1102 Holzapfel Hall (American Studies Main Office)
Or visit www.uslt.umd.edu