OIT (Office of Information Technology): Learning Technologies

OIT Learning Technologies’ new website is: http://www.otal.umd.edu

The Learning Technologies group offers faculty training, consultation, and technical support for ELMS and additional tools, such as clickers, podcasting, Live Classroom, and others that can be used to facilitate teaching and learning.

The new site provides information on:

*Online Teaching/Learning
*ELMS/ Blackboard
*Digital Media
*Collaboration and Interaction, and
*Training and Consulting

In addition, the site will provide a calendar of events, a variety of how-to materials, community forums, and contact information.
